Press Release
Water Medical Emergency

On Friday July 29th 2022 at approximately 1:45pm the Chisago County Emergency Communications Center received a 911 call from a group of boaters on South Lindstrom Lake. The group advised an adult male on their boat was experiencing a medical emergency and was not breathing.

The boaters were within close proximity to Beach Park public swimming area located on South Lindstrom Lake, emergency personnel met the group at Beach Park and began providing care to the victim.

Lifesaving efforts were ultimately unsuccessful, the male was pronounced deceased. The Chisago County Sheriff's Office Investigations Division is investigating the incident along with the Midwest Medical Examiners Office. Foul play is not suspected.

The victim is an adult male from Coon Rapids, MN. His name is being withheld at this time to allow for family notifications.

Agencies assisting included:

Lakes Area Police Dept, MN DNR, Lindstrom Fire Department, Lakes Region EMS and Life Link III.
